

1.General instructions for couples

1. Always visit the centre only after making prior appointment
2. Carry all the previous treatment records
3. Do not hide any relevant medical information
4. Ask your doctor regarding the possible treatment options, its success rate, complications and expenses
5. Be prompt in reporting for follow up visits
6. Understand all prescription instructions before leaving the centre
7. Tell your doctor regarding allergy for any medicines in the past
8. Avoid too many relatives in accompanying you while visiting the doctor
9. Listen the instructions for injections
10. Report to the doctor in time in case of any emergencies